Descrizione dell'opera:

Dedicata alla Mùsega da Vich per i suoi 200 anni di storia, il brano "Echo Alp" vuole essere un'immagine musicale del paese di Vigo di Fassa e dei suoi abitanti, dei musicisti della banda ma allo stesso tempo rappresenta anche alcuni aspetti dell'ambiente montano dell'intera Valle di Fassa. Brano rapsodico che si divide in tre momenti dalle caratteristiche ben definite, tuttavia vi è un inciso musicale che unisce l'intera composizione e da cui ne deriva anche il titolo: è l'arpeggio tipico dei corni di montagna, che risuona più e più volte, talvolta chiarissimo e ben riconoscibile, altre variato e più nascosto.

Nella prima parte un tema leggero incalzato da una forte presenza ritmica richiama lo spirito di iniziativa e l'entusiasmo che caratterizza la compagine bandistica, come anche altre associazioni di volontariato, e dà l'inizio all'escursione montana. La parte centrale si propone molto più dolce e lineare, e rappresenta il ricordo affettuoso di chi non c'è più, che la stessa montagna ha chiamato a sé. Contemplando queste bellezze diventiamo consapevoli che possono essere tanto magnifiche quanto pericolose e il nostro compito è tutelare questo patrimonio e accettare di non poter controllare la natura. La parte conclusiva è annunciata da una breve fanfara, che ci infonde nuovo coraggio ed energia necessari per proseguire, raggiungere la vetta e dalla cima più alta far risuonare un'ultima volta l'eco alpino.

Fabio Riz nasce nel 1993 in Val di Fassa (Trentino) e fin da piccolo dimostra interesse per la musica. Inizia lo studio del clarinetto all'età di otto anni con la Scuola di Musica "Il Pentagramma" e presto diventa musicista nella banda del paese, chiamata col termine ladino "Mùsega da Vich". L'attività bandistica funge da ulteriore stimolo per migliorarsi e aderisce così alla "Banda giovanile rappresentativa delle Bande Trentine" e tramite la stessa Federazione inizia a seguire i primi corsi di direzione. Prosegue gli studi di clarinetto presso il Conservatorio "Claudio Monteverdi" di Bolzano sotto la guida degli insegnanti Roberto Gander e Roberta Gottardi, ottenendo il diploma accademico di II livello nel 2018. Parallelamente agli studi di Conservatorio continua la pratica e lo studio della direzione bandistica e nel 2017 accetta l'incarico come Maestro direttore e come insegnante di clarinetto per la banda folkloristica di Tredena, la "Musikkapelle Truden", che dirige tutt'oggi. Fabio Riz collabora attivamente come musicista nell'orchestra di fiati Symphonic Winds dell'Alto Adige, nei progetti della Scuola di Musica il Pentagramma quali l'orchestra di fiati Pentagramma Winds e il Pentacintetto, assieme ad altri insegnanti della scuola. In occasione dei 200 anni di fondazione della "Mùsega da Vich" scrive la sua prima composizione originale per banda dal titolo "Echo Alp", registrata sul CD "Alfa e Omega" nel 2020.

Fabio Riz wurde 1993 im Fassatal (Trentino) geboren und interessierte sich schon in jungen Jahren für Musik. Im Alter von acht Jahren begann er mit dem Klarinettenunterricht an der Musikschule "Il Pentagramma" und tritt bald als Musikant seiner Heimatkapelle, die auf ladinisch "Mùsega da Vich" heißt, bei. Die Orchesterfähigkeit ist ein weiterer Ansporn, sich kontinuierlich fortzubilden, und so tritt er der "Banda giovanile rappresentativa delle Bande Trentine" bei. Über diesen Verband besuchte er auch erste Dirigierkurse. Sein Klarinettenstudium setzte er am Konservatorium "Claudio Monteverdi" in Bozen bei den Lehrern Roberto Gander und Roberta Gottardi fort und erwarb 2018 das akademische Diplom der Stufe II. Parallel dazu besuchte er immer wieder Kapellmeisterlehrgänge und übernahm 2017 die Stelle als Dirigent und Klarinettenlehrer bei der Musikkapelle Truden, die er bis heute leitet.

Fabio Riz ist Mitglied des Südtiroler Auswahl-Blasorchesters Symphonic Winds sowie des Blasorchesters Pentagramma Winds und des Pentacintetts.

Anlässlich des 200. Jahrestages der Gründung der "Mùsega da Vich" schrieb er seine erste Originalkomposition für Blasorchester mit dem Titel "Echo Alp", die 2020 auf der CD "Alfa e Omega" eingespielt wurde.

Fabio Riz was born in 1993 in the Fassa Valley (Trentino) and became interested in music at a young age. At the age of eight, he started clarinet lessons at the music school "Il Pentagramma" and soon joins his home band, called "Mùsega da Vich" in Ladin, as a musician. The orchestra activity is a further incentive to continue his education, and so he joins the "Banda giovanile rappresentativa delle Bande Trentine". Through this association he also attended his first conducting courses. He continued his clarinet studies at the "Claudio Monteverdi" Conservatory in Bolzano with the teachers Roberto Gander and Roberta Gottardi and obtained the Level II academic diploma in 2018. At the same time, he repeatedly attended courses for conductors and in 2017 took over the position as conductor and clarinet teacher at the Musikkapelle Truden, which he still leads today.

Fabio Riz is a member of the South Tyrolean select orchestra Symphonic Winds as well as the orchestra Pentagramma Winds and the Pentacintett.

On the occasion of the 200th anniversary of the founding of the "Mùsega da Vich", he wrote his first original composition for wind orchestra entitled "Echo Alp", which was recorded on the CD "Alfa e Omega" in 2020.

Werkbeschreibung:

Das Werk "Echo Alp" ist der Mùsega da Vich für ihre 200-jährige Geschichte gewidmet. Es ist ein musikalisches Portrait des Dorfes Vigo di Fassa, dessen Bewohner und der Musikanten der Kapelle, stellt aber gleichzeitig auch den Facettenreichtum der Bergwelt des Fassatals dar. Es handelt sich um ein rhapsodisch angelegtes Stück, das in drei Szenen mit klar definierten Charakteristika unterteilt ist, und doch gibt es einen musikalischen Aspekt, der die gesamte Komposition eint und von dem sich auch ihr Titel ableitet: Es ist das typische Arpeggio der Alphörner, das immer wieder erklingt; manchmal sehr klar und deutlich erkennbar, ein anderes Mal variiert und etwas verborgener.

Im ersten Teil erinnert ein heiteres Thema, das von einem kraftvollen Rhythmus getragen wird, an den Unternehmungsgest und den Enthusiasmus, der Musikkapellen und alle anderen freiwilligen Vereine auszeichnet. Dieses leitet sodann eine Bergtour ein. Der mittlere Teil gestaltet sich viel sanfter und linearer und stellt die liebevolle Erinnerung an diejenigen dar, die nicht mehr unter uns weilen, da sie in den Bergen verunglückt sind. Bei der Betrachtung dieser Schönheiten wird uns bewusst, dass sie ebenso herrlich wie gefährlich sein können. Es ist unsere Aufgabe, dieses Erbe zu schützen und zu akzeptieren, dass wir die Natur nicht kontrollieren können. Der letzte Teil wird von einer kurzen Fanfara angekündigt, die uns neuen Mut und die nötige Energie verleiht, um weiterzugehen, den Gipfel zu erreichen und vom höchsten Punkt aus ein letztes Mal das Echo erschallen zu lassen.

Description of work:

The work "Echo Alp" is dedicated to the Mùsega da Vich for its 200-year history. It is a musical portrait of the village of Vigo di Fassa, its inhabitants and the musicians of the music band, but at the same time it represents the multifaceted nature of the mountain world of the Fassa Valley. It is a rhapsodic piece divided into three scenes with clearly defined characteristics, and yet there is a musical aspect that unites the entire composition and from which its title is derived: It is the typical arpeggio of the alphorns that sounds again and again; sometimes very clear and recognisable, other times varied and somewhat more hidden.

In the first part, a cheerful theme carried by a powerful rhythm recalls the spirit of enterprise and enthusiasm that characterises music bands and all other voluntary associations. This then introduces a mountain tour. The middle section is much gentler and more linear and represents the loving memory of those who are no longer with us, having died in the mountains. As we contemplate these beauties, we realise that they can be as magnificent as they are dangerous. It is our mission to protect this heritage and to accept that we cannot control nature. The last part is announced by a short fanfare that gives us new courage and the necessary energy to go on, to reach the summit and to echo from the highest point one last time.
